Support and Reporting Options for Survivors of Sexual Assault

Incident

Emergency Services

- Emergency Services: 911
- Bartlett Regional Hospital: 907-796-8900
- Southeast Alaska Regional Health Consortium: 907-463-4040

Do you need medical attention?

No

Do you want to speak with someone?

Yes

No

UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA SOUTHEAST

learn · engage · change

You can speak with someone at any time. Reporting is always your choice. Choosing one route does not exclude other options. You should pursue whatever routes will be most helpful to recovery. We are here for you. We are here to help.

Would you like to speak to someone confidentially?

Confidential Resources

- UAS Counseling Services: 907-796-6000
- AWARE*: 907-586-1090
- National Sexual Assault
 Hotline: 1-800-656-4673

*AWARE: Aiding Women in Abuse and Rape Emergencies

No

Where to Report

- Kirk McAllister, Title IX: 907-796-6473
- Lori Klein, Student Conduct: 907-796-6529
- Eric Scott, Campus Life: 907-796-6389

Support is available through the UAS Clinic and Counseling Services, community mental health care providers, religious leaders and AWARE.