JUNEAU CRIMELINE
A PROUD MEMBER OF

Crime Line Crime of the Week

Subject: Don Abel Burglary

Date: 8-18-15

From: Lt Kris Sell

Case or Incident: 150808-004

On August 8th, 2015, at about 1:30 in the morning, a person went into Don Abel's Building Supply and took almost $4,000 worth of tools and knives. There is video surveillance of a person in dark clothing entering the store and taking items. The face of the suspect is not well-lit so identification from the video alone is difficult.

JPD may have collected some of the stolen tools from a person of interest who was arrested on August 12, 2015, for an unrelated burglary. The person of interest in the Don Abel burglary is 25 year old Albert M. Mazon of Juneau.

A large amount of property is unaccounted for and may have been hidden or is in the possession of other people. Dozens of tools are still missing along with about forty knives that were taken from a display case. JPD is releasing catalogue pictures of some of the knives in an attempt to get assistance from the public in finding more of the stolen items and identifying any additional suspects.
