

BOXER SAILS MONDAY, ARCTIC DEC. 5

FINAL BODIES RECOVERED IN SLIDE

MRS. MATTON, VANALI FOUND DEAD IN RUINS

Slide Death List Reaches Tragic Total of 14 Men, Women, Children

AUTHORITIES BELIEVE ALL ARE NOW REMOVED

General Evacuation of Hill-side Home Area as Rain Continues

Swelling the total list of dead in the avalanche of last Sunday on Lower Front Street to 14, the bodies of Mrs. Fred Mattson and Joe Vanalli (Glovenale) were taken from the ruins between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning.

Officials believe that bodies of all others have now been recovered from the debris. There is a remote possibility that there may be others, but careful check by authorities has failed to list anyone else missing, they reported.

23 in Slide: Awesome figures today revealed that a total of 23 persons were caught in the mighty cascade of dirt which roared down the sidewalk on Quintanilla Avenue last Sunday evening around 7:30 o'clock, leaving death and destruction in its wake—15 killed and nine injured.

The total and believed complete death list includes: Mrs. Fred Mattson, Joe Vanalli (Glovenale), Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Peterson, Mrs. Lena Peterson, Mrs. Gust Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. James Hoag, Forrest Beaudia, Lorraine Vanalli (Glovenale), Mrs. Joe Vanalli (Glovenale), Pete Battelle, Mrs. George Lee, Oscar Lallo.

The injured, all of whom are expected to recover, some having already left the hospital, include August Maki, Alfred Bates, Mrs. Gust Erickson, Albert Persson, Mrs. Albert Persson, Ossi and Allen Persson, Mrs. Gust Junlin, Mrs. William Lott.

Claiming Possessions: Possessions of the victims and of others who had goods in the path of the slide continued to be found today as clearing of the debris was carried on by city crews. U. S. Commissioner Philip Gray said that relatives, friends and some of those who escaped the actual disaster, were reporting at 161 Franklin Street, where the articles are being kept in custody, and identifying various things. It has been definitely determined, he reported, that the $500 found in a woman's purse was the property of Mrs. Hugo Peterson, one of the victims. Mrs. Lena Peterson.

(Continued on Page Two)

3 KILLER IN 3-CAR CRASH

LONGVIEW, Wash., Nov. 28.—Roger Woodruff, aged 5, of Tacoma, died in a head-on crash, bringing to three dead in a three-car collision north of here last Wednesday night.

A brother of Roger, aged 3 years, and his father, H. C. Woodruff, electrical engineer, died in separate accidents after the crash.

THE PRINCESS NARAH IS due in Juneau northbound Monday, November 29.

IS OPERATED UPON: Mrs. J. C. Dora undergoes a surgical operation today at St. Mary's hospital.

WILL THERE BE A HONEYMOON?

Danar Daves, scenario writer, was at the airport to bid goodbyes to Kay Francis, screen actress, when she left by plane for the East and to fly to Europe. The word in Hollywood was that Daves would follow and that they might make it a honeymoon trip. (Associated Press Photo)

BIG SERVICE GAME GIVES NAVY 7, ARMY 0

Midshipmen and Cadets Almost Have Tie Game—Late Rally Saves Navy

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 28.—After being held on the defensive for most of the game, the Navy rallied to parade 70 yards to a touchdown in the closing minutes of the game this afternoon and beat the Army 7 to 0.

The game was witnessed by 102,000 spectators. Sneed Schmidt plunged three times from the three yard mark after a pass and interference gave the Navy the ball at that point.

LIONS REPEAT 7-0 WIN OVER CARD GRIDDERS

Columbia Scores on Opening Kickoff, Then Staves Off Stanford Attacks

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—With George Furey, George Linn, half-back, running back the opening kickoff seventy-nine yards for the only touchdown of the game, Columbia University duplicated its Rose Bowl victory of two years ago by defeating the Stanford University Cardinals here this afternoon.

The Cardinals, wearing basketball shoes, to secure footing on the frozen turf, kept pushing the Columbia goal line throughout the game, but were unable to even the count.

CHRISTMAS PACKAGES FOR EAST ARE DUE IN MAIL NEXT TUESDAY

Christmas packages that have the East Coast as their destination should be in the mail that goes south on the Princess Narah next Wednesday morning, according to Postmaster Albert Wilkins.

Fourth Cousin of Roosevelt Dies, Aged 94

West's Oldest Automobile Driver Passes Away in Washington

ORTING, Wash., Nov. 28.—Daniel Delano, aged 94, fourth cousin of President Roosevelt, is dead at his home here.

Delano claimed to be the West's oldest automobile driver. He was a former traveling salesman and a life long Republican but changed at the last election.

Unable to go to the polls himself, he sent his wife and instructed her to vote to "keep things in the family."

The couple observed their seventieth wedding anniversary last April 14.

GOVERNMENT FORCES ARE ON ADVANCE

Insurgents Around Madrid Are Reported to Be Driven Back

MADRID, Nov. 28.—The Defense Junta announced that government forces have routed the insurgent army which attempted to cut the northwestern road to El Escorial.

The Government also insists that the International Battalion on the Southern front line has driven the insurgents back several miles.

LOSING SUPPORT: LONDON, Nov. 28.—It is rumored that the unknown support being received by the Insurgents is waning as they have not progressed as satisfactorily as they should.

PLURALITY OF ROOSEVELT IS CLIMBING UP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—President Roosevelt's plurality over London has climbed to about the ten and a half million mark according to the latest compilation. Not half of the states have yet announced their complete official count.

PRESIDENT IS URGING PEACE IN NEW WORLD

Addresses Joint Session of Brazilian Congress at Rio de Janeiro

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Nov. 28.—Addressing a joint session of Brazil's Congress, President Franklin D. Roosevelt of the United States said "there is no American conflict that cannot be settled by orderly peaceful means."

TO WELCOME ROOSEVELT: BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 28.—"Welcome Roosevelt" posters, worded in lyrical Spanish, are plastered over the city by order of Mayor Marcelo Verdigué, putting the finishing touch on the plans for a tremendous reception.

The municipality has also asked every one of the city's two million three hundred thousand citizens to display Argentine flags at their homes.

According to advices received here, President Roosevelt leaves Rio de Janeiro tonight aboard the Indianapolis for here. It is said the Chief Executive is preparing his second major speech to be delivered in South America.

FOREST BLAZES THREATENING IN WESTERN AREAS

Three Counties in Oregon, Three in Washington, Are Hit

PORTLAND, Oregon, Nov. 28.—Today late in the brush and timber land in Western Oregon and Southwestern Washington but ice formed on lakes in the Cascade mountains. Snow's falling at Pendleton, Oregon.

The driest fall in years turned the forests into tinder boxes. Low humidity is fairly general west of the Cascades although the coastal sections are blanketed in heavy wet fog that brought some relief to the fires.

The most menacing fire in Oregon is on Saddle Mountain in Clatsop County.

Coast fires are also reported in Coos, Curry and Tillamook Counties.

In Washington, fires are reported in Skamania, Clark and Cowlitz Counties.

One of These Will Be Rose Queen

From this group of junior college co-eds will be chosen the Queen of Hearts to preside over the Tournament of Roses, twin attraction with the Rose Bowl football classic at Pasadena, Cal., New Year's Day. "Romance" is the theme of the flower tournament. (Associated Press Photo)

EXPANSION OF WALSH-HEALY ACT IS SOUGHT

Labor Standards, Wages, Working Conditions to Be Bettered

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Officials are considering asking Congress to expand the scope of the Walsh-Healy Act to obtain widespread observance of labor standards similar to NIRA.

It is certain that firms doing business with the Government must pay the prevailing wages and observe the 40-hour week and provide beneficial working conditions, also ban child labor.

This Act applies to all contracts over $10,000 but leaves 91 percent of the contracts outside of the law. Officials want the law to apply to all contracts.

AIMEE IS SUED FOR LARGE SUM

Former "Angel of Broadway" Claims Damages for Alleged Slander, Etc.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 28.—The long smouldering hostility between Almee Temple and her former manager, Albee Crawford, recently flared in court.

Almee Crawford was recently notified by Albee Temple that her $500 monthly contract as associate manager was ended. She alleges in her suit that Almee referred to her as the mistress of a high state official, a thief and a conspirator.

OLDTIMER DIES

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Nov. 28.—R. F. Thibault, aged 79, an old-timer died in a local hospital here as the result of chest trouble. No relative are known.

Extortion Plot Endangers Life of Young Star

Freddie Bartholomew Is Object of Demand for $50,000 Says Aunt

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Nov. 28.—Freddie Bartholomew, twelve-year-old film star who is earning $1,200 a week, is believed to be the target of a $50,000 kidnap extortion plot.

The young star's aunt, Miss Millicent Bartholomew, disclosed today that he had been threatened in a letter received this week.

At first, Miss Bartholomew said, she thought the letter was the work of a crank and turned it over to studio authorities for investigation.

"I understand that G Men are tracing the sender, who is believed to be known to them," said Freddie's aunt.

FOOD COMMITTEE IN ENGLAND IS WAR SAFEGUARD

Parliament Members in Spain Ask Neutral Powers to Act

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Great Britain prepared for possible war with the appointment today of a food committee to guard her supplies. The committee was created by the Cabinet to "alert duty."

HOMAN RECOVERS

George R. Homan, of the U. S. Signal Corps stationed in Juneau, is recovering from a case of asthma and was able to leave St. Ann's Hospital today.

30-HOUR WEEK WEEK IS BEING DEMANDED NOW

American Federation of Labor to Ask Congress for National Law

TAMPA, Florida, Nov. 28.—The American Federation of Labor today threw its strength back of the 30-hour work week as the only means of mastering unemployment.

The delegates to the annual convention directed the Executive Council to call upon Congress for the enactment of a 30-hour week into a National law.

TO RE-ELECT GREEN: TAMPA, Nov. 28.—The American Federation of Labor will close the annual convention tonight by electing William Green as President for the thirteenth year.

RECORD BUDGET ALLOTMENTS BY JAPAN CABINET

Appropriations for Coming Year Will Entail New National Loan

TOKYO, Nov. 28.—According to a statement by Japanese Finance Minister Eiji Daba, a new national loan for Japan will be necessary as a result of the record-breaking 1937-38 budget, more than half of the allotments of which are devoted to the army and navy.

The new Japanese budget calls for three billion, forty-one million yen, or about eight hundred seventy million dollars. This is an increase of nineteen million, five hundred sixty-four thousand dollars over the current budget.

BREAK MADE IN SEAMEN STRIKE EASTERN COAST

Working Agreement Signed with Two Companies on West Basis

PACKERS VESSEL BEING UNLOADED, SAN FRANCISCO

Ickes Announces Her Sailing for Territory Probably Week from Today

A.P.A. SHIP CARRIES TOTAL OF 1,724 NET

Separate Agreements Signed Between Government and Various Unions

BULLETIN — SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—The Masters, Mates and Pilots in New York signed the agreement to work the Government chartered ships to Alaska, removing the last obstacle in the way of movement of steamers. Six other unions signed contracts yesterday.

Cal. Otto F. Ohlson announced he would immediately charter the Arctic here and then go to Seattle to complete arrangements for the emergency service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Interior Secretary Harold I. Ickes said today that the first boat load of foodstuffs for Alaska will be carried on the vessel Boar of the Indian Bureau, leaving Seattle probably tomorrow. The "Boar" had also had been completed for chartering the Arctic, owned by the Alaska Packers' Association, for the Alaska fishing season. The Arctic will take food and fuel as far north aseward.

UNIONS SIGN UP: SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 28.—Formalities of signing contracts between the Maritime unions and the Alaska Railroad, operating food ships along the Territory, were completed last night. Separate contracts were made with each union at the wage prevailing during the Alaska fishing season. Contracts run for the "duration of the enactment of a 30-hour week into a National law."

The Masters, Mates and Pilots is the only union not signed but it is expected to sign contracts shortly, it was stated.

ARCTIC LARGE VESSEL

The Arctic, which is scheduled to sail for the north December 5, has a gross tonnage of 4,297 tons and a

(Continued on Page Seven)